FIFTY BOXES FROM ONE APPLE TREE

Elmer Purdy of the Terraces claims the record apple crop. Fifteen boxes averaging over 60 pounds each of Bellflowers were picked from a nine year old tree. The windfalls and culls are not counted in this. He says that there is over 800 pounds of number one apples less than 100 pounds being seconds. The Terraces are a few miles from Ukiah on the hillside. This shows that the hill land which is now considered almost worthless here will make the finest of orchards.

FARMERS INSTITUTE DECEMBER 6 AND 7

Prof. C. A. Bernhnard, secretary of the Ukiah Farmers' club, reports that he has secured the services of a number of professors from the Agricultural College of the U. C. for a farmers' institute on Friday and Saturday, Dec. 6 and 7. This will be the first farmers' intsitute to be held in Mendocino county and should be well attended.

While the arrangements are not yet completed it is understood that Superintendent of the Agricultural Experiment station, W. T. Clarke, will be one of the speakers. He will lecture on soil, soil improvement, orchard practice and spraying, and general horticultural topics. Dr. C. L. Roadhouse will take for a topic the production of milk, sanitary dairying etc, and the diseases of animals. Miss Lilian Clark will interest the farmers' wives by a discussion of labor saving devices for the farmer's home, and vegetable foods, their preparation and use.

MENDOCINO COUNTY HUNTERS ORGANIZE

On Wednesday night of last week the sportsmen of this city met at the court rooms for the purpose of organizing a branch of the state game association. The meeting was organized by electing R. L. Hutchison president, Recorder E. E. Holbrook vice president, Atty. J. R. Thomas secretary, and F. M. Wilson treasurer. The sense of the meeting was that the organization should include the whole county and that all sections of the county should work together in conserving the game of this section and recommending proposed changes in the game laws. It was decided that the best way would be to divide the county into three districts making the coast section one, Ukiah, Sanel, Anderson, Potter and Redwood valley in another and Little Lake, Round and Lorg valleys in another, but to have the organizations all work together under a general head.

WHO CARRIED STATE QUESTION OF MOMENT

Roosevelt or Wilson is the question that is bothering those who have placed money on the result of the recent election. The lead has shifted a dozen times during the last week and the vote is so close that it is probable that the winner will not have a margin over 100. The Bulletin claimed the state for Roosevelt Wednesday night by ten and the Call yesterday announced Wilson ahead by one hundred twenty one. An official count will be required to decide the matter of California's thirteen electoral votes.

UKIAH ATTRACTS CUPIDS VICTIMS

S. M. Beyer of Santa Rosa and Miss May M. Macquart of Alameda were married in this city Tuesday afternoon by Judge Crockett and left on the afternoon train for Santa Rosa where they will make their home. This is the second couple this week who have come to Ukiah to wed and much speculation is being indulged as to why Ukiah is being selected as the favored town. The sentiment seems to be divided as to whether Judge Crocket has gained fame as a tier of matriomonial knots or the attractive Cupid, Miss Thomas, is proving the drawing card for those with heart troubles.

WINTER VACATION FOR THESE SCHOOLS

The following schools have closed or will close in the next few days for the winter vacation: Alpine, Cahto, Cave Creek, Comptche, Ellison, Galloway, Gaskill, Hayslett, Hot Springs, Jackson. Kaisen, Leggett valley, McKay, Ocean, Piercy, Pine Mt., Rowena, Signal Port, Ten Mile, Wages Creek, Wheelbarrow and Whitcomb.

YOUR ATTENTION GRAPEGROWERS

Would a U. S. Government experimental station at Ukiah for the purpose of showing us how to plant, prune, fight disease pests and what varieties are best for us to plant, be of any value to us? If you think so

COME OUT AND SAY SO.

Mr. George C. Husmann, one of the greatest authorities on grape growing is about to come to Ukiah. He is a man of international repute, now in the employ of the United States. His official title is Pomologist in charge of Viticultural Investigations.

SATURDAY NOV. 16.

The Ukiah Farmers' Club through its secretary has just been notified that Mr. Husmann will be in Ukiah on Saturday next, November 16th, to hold a meeting with grape growers. We expected him two weeks ago but train connections prevented him getting here. He will be with us without fail this time.

MR. GEO. C. HUSMANN

will likely be with us on Friday to visit the vineyards and call upon as many of the growers as time and the weather will permit. If you wish him to go to your place notify the Farmers' Club.

EXPERIMENTAL STATION.

Mr. Husmann says in effect, that he will consider establishing an experimental station if it can be shown that conditions here demand and justify so doing. Of course the government is not throwing money away in these undertakings and it is now up to the growers to show their interest and ask for the station. Come out and ask.

MEETING IN COURT ROOM.

The meeting will be in the Court room, Ukiah, at 2 o'clock. Be on time so as not to delay the meeting until dark. The Farmers' Club will adjourn to the Court room, it being our regular meeting day.

TWO O'CLOCK SHARP.

Let every farmer interested in grape growing and horticulture be on hand Saturday, Nov. 16, at 2 o'clock, in the court room to pay honor to our distinguished guest and learn from his great fund of experience. Also to boost for that Experimental Station.

Ukiah Farmers' Club, Inc.,
C. A. Bernhard, Secretary.

INTENTIONS BRING RESULTS

Another sample of the work accomplished by Press ads is testified to by Rev. Pettis this week. He had some hay to sell and being a Press want ad convert sent in his ad. He had no sooner sent in the ad than he sold his hay. He believes that his determination to advertise the hay in the Press was responsible for selling it.

REMARKABLE CROPS FROM IRRIGATION

A. D. Chandon is a farmer who has ideas of his own and in order to test some of them rented a piece of land of his father north of town this season. He believed that the reason that valley potatoes would not keep well was that they were planted too soon and that if they were planted later and irrigatied that a much better spud would be the result.

He therefore planted four acres of potatoes on June 15, just about the time the crop is usually harvested, and the result is that his crop is now just about ready to market. The crop was was well irrigated and given good care and he has a little over five tons to the acre of large, firm, Ohio and Uncle Sam spuds that will keep all winter.

Two acres of irrigated kershaws produced over 30 tons to the acre. In fact there is so many pumpkins that there is hardly room for them on the ground. He succeeded in producing sugar corn stalks ten feet high and sold 2000 dozen ears from an acre and a half of land. It must be remembered that the land Mr. Chandon used was by no means the best in the valley and not even bottom land. He produced these results by using his brains and irrigating properly.

STORE TALK FROM PRESS ADVERTISERS

J. S. Love has accepted a position as head of the dress goods and silk departments of the City of Ukiah. Mr. Love is an eastern man and comes with new ideas. He has held positions with Maxwell Bros. in Chicago and the J. H. Hudson company of Detroit, two of the large eastern firms. He is a competent salesman and pleasant gentleman to deal with and will undoubtedly prove a valuable acquisition to the sales force of the City of Ukiah.

Manager Adolph Marks of the City of Ukiah reports that the ladies tailoring department recently established has exceeded his expectations and that their business in this line has already grown to such proportions that the services of another trilor is necessary. In addition to fitting their customers to the coats and suits purchased they also make ladies suits and coats to order. Mr. Marks reports that they are now displaying a line of the latest in Christmas novelties and invites the inspection of his customers.

A. O. Carpenter has tried Press want ads before. He is advertising this week some of the best French walnut trees for planting. Mr. Carpenter knows walnut trees and has fine success with those in bearing at his residence. Here is a case where you can patronize home industry and save money and be sure you are getting just what you want.

Al Mapas is advertising his baby chicks this week in the want columns. Al has used Press ads before and last season sold thousands of chicks through them. The fact that people who have used want ads before come back when they have anything to sell should convince you that there is something attractive about them. What else could it be besides quick sales.

E T. Browning, electrician, has on display at his shop west of the court house square two mechanical appliances that are of interest to every woman. One is a motor operated sewing machine which is driven by a small electric motor. The other is a washing machine and wringer operated by a motor. In each case the principles of the machinery are very simple and all that is necessary is to shift a lever and the machines are in operation. A child can operate either of them and there is nothing to get out of order. No mechanical knowledge is necessary. Incidentially the prices are very reasonable and within reach of every housewife. If you will call at Brownings you can see the machines in operation.

J. P. Mathisen and Thomas Ellison of Little River were over on a business visit this week.

MAKE YOUR MONEY WORK IN COUNTY

Articles of incorporation were filed Monday to bring into existence the Mendocino Redwood Manufacturing company.

It is capaltalized at $75000. The directors of the company are J. S. Turbett, Chas. M. Mannon, George Lambert, Frank La Porte and J. A. Whitehead. Twenty five thousand dollars of this capitalization is taken up in prefered stock at one hundred dollars per share. Fifty thousand dollars in common stock at one hundred dollars a share will be put on the market at a later date. Most of the prefered stock has been suscribed.

Mr. Whitehead, who organized the company and is in charge of the mill now on the company's property at Boonville in Anderson valley, says that it is agreed that the common stock will not be placed upon the market until the dividends paid to suscribers of the prefered stock have paid back in full their original subscriptions.

A wagon load of supplies left Jamison Bros., store Wednesday to be used in the cook house at the mill which will soon be in operation. There is a money crop in this county for every investor who will DIG.

FRED FRAISER WEDS AND LANDS GOOD JOB

Fred Frasier put one over on his friends a few weeks ago when announced that he was leaving for Napa. He returned last week and brought Mrs. Frasier with him. The bride was Minnie Helen Storn of Kingston, N. Y., and they were married in Napa on October 12. Fred returns as the resident representative of the Sawyer Tanning company of Napa and will have Mendocino, Lake and the northern part of Sonoma counties. In addition to buying hides for this company he will also tan furs, rugs etc.

The position is a good one and as Fred is well acquainted with the business he will undoubtedly make good. He is prepared to pay the highest market prices for hides and will make visits to the different sections of his territory in the interests of his company. The company is one of the largest in the state. Fred's friends are congratulating him not only on becoming a benedict but on getting a good job.

TYREE CONVICTED NORGARD JURY HUNG

The jury in the case of Elmer Norgard charged with cattle stealing were unable to agree and were discharged. Norgard is out under $3000 bail. In the case of Ernest Tyree on the same charge the jury was out 21 hours coming in Wednesday morning with a compromise verdict of guilty and recommending the prisoner to the court for parole. This jury stood 9 to 3 on the first ballot and then 8 to 4 until the verdict was reached. The Norgard jury stood 8 to 4 for acquittal. Tyree will be sentenced tomorrow morning by Judge White.

The alleged theft of the cattle occurred near the northern border line of the county. Tyree and Norgard were located in Washington in a logging camp by Sheriff Byrnes and were brought back from there. Their defense was that they had purchased the cattle.

CUPID'S DARTS ARE AGAIN DANGEROUS

The marriage license business has been extremely dull for the winter season and although cupid had prepared a new lot of licenses none were used until this week. Miss Cupid Thomas reports the following as the weeks business with good prospects: Pietro Del Maggioso and Angelini Bertini of Fort Bragg; John C. Hickey and Calista Hopper of Willits; Luther B. Johnson and Stella B. Snyder of Santa Rosa; Lemuel Roy Pedrotti and Frances Packard Whipple of Fort Bragg.

CASES FILED IN SUPERIOR COURT

Mrs. Essa Lanning has field suit for divorce from her husband, J. Arthur, through her attorneys McNab & Hirsch. Statutory grounds are alleged.

The estate of Pierce Asbill has been filed for probate. It is understood that this is a part of the proceedings to quiet title to some lands in the northern part of the county.

Amy Eldred has applied for letters in the estate of Horace Eldred through her attorney Robert Duncan. The estate consists of 480 acres of land in Round valley valued at more than $10,000, the residence in Ukiah valued at $3000 and $4000 cash in the bank of Ukiah.

IS UKIAH INDIAN OR CHINESE

Ukiah has been commonly supposed to be of Indian derivation. It is noted however that the president of the Six Companies in San Francisco and one of the most influential Chinamen in the United States is Mr. Fong Ukiah. Whether Mr. Fong was named after Ukiah or his name is merely the result of phonetic spelling of what sounds like Ukiah in Chinese is not known.

NO GOVERNMENT JOB FOR HIM

J. H. Rafter of Elk writes that he is tickled to death with Wilson's election and says that his forecast giving Wilson Elk, the State and the U. S has all panned out except the state and he still thinks he will win that. He told the boys on election morning that Wilson felt so confident of election that he had telegraphed offering him either the S. F. postoffice or customs house. He says that he has not anwered yet and will probably decline as he likes the coast of Mendocino too well to leave for any job less than a cabinent position.

STUDYING DEER DISEASES

Frank Clarke is now studying the malady that is killing off the deer of the state in Siskiyou and Shasta counties. Frank is regarded as an authority on this subject and was recently given a page written up in the Los Angeles Tribune. His investigations have practically proven that it is not possible for the tick which carries the disease to transmit the Teaxs fever to cattle after leaving the deer. This was commonly supposed to be the case before he commenced his investigation. Mr. Clarke is one of the Mendocino county boys who is making a name for himself in the world.

MAIL DELIVERY AT WILLITS SATURDAY

On Sturday the first letter carrier will make his rounds in Mendocino county. The carrier will be Elmer Carner of Willits. Congress appropriated $100,000 to make a test of delivering mail in towns having postoffices under the second class and Willits has been one of the fifteen towns in the United States selected for the trial. The residents of Willits will now enjoy the same privilege in the delivery of mail as the large cities of the land.

Yes, why not?

AID TO INTELLIGENT STUDY OF THE BIBLE.

Sunday School Lessons Educational to All.

An Illustrated Commentary on the International Sunday School Lessons May Be Obtained by Saving the Articles From This Paper—Handy Compendium For Bible Students.

The Brooklyn Tabernacle articles on the International Sunday School Lessons bring out the instruction intended in a way which can be seen to be more harmonious, beautiful and reasonable than is generally understood.

There never was a time when religion was investigated as generally by all classes of people as it is today. There never was a time when helpful explanations of the Sunday School Lessons were more needed. The Brooklyn Tabernacle Lessons are the timely aid for all. They present the various fragments of truth on the different subjects in such language as best enables all classes of readers to grasp the general thoughts of the lessons clearly.

The Sunday School Teachers and pupils who devote fifteen minutes of study ordinarily. with the hope of mastering their lessons, are often disappointed; but to those of our readers who will give just time enough for a careful reading of the Brooklyn Tabernacle single-column article we offer assurance of pleasement and lasting good.

It is the design of many readers to save the Lessons for a period of time and then have them bound together. This will constitute a valuable and helpful commentary upon Sunday School topics.

The Brooklyn Tabernacle International Sunday School Lesson will be a regular feature in this paper each week.

AN EXPLANATION THAT EXPLAINS.

Sunday School Lessons Made Easy and Interesting.

A Weekly Illustrated Article on the International Sunday School Topic to Be a Regular Feature In This Paper Hereafter—The Oft-Repeated "I Don't Know the Lesson," Will Not Do Now.

We are pleased to announce to our readers that in this issue we begin the regular weekly publication of the Brooklyn Tabernacle Illustrated Articles on the International Sunday School Lessons.

These articles are written in easily understood but beautiful language, really explaining the Lessons, and go far towards making it a real pleasure for both teacher and pupil to meet in the class room at the recitation hour.

No longer can the busy or careless offer as an excuse for staying home Sunday morning the oft-repeated, "I don't know the lesson."

Teachers of pupils with ordinary mind can hereafter in fifteen minutes read the Brooklyn Tabernacle single-column article, and thereby creditably acquit themselves among their fellows.

To those of our readers who are forced to miss the regular weekly class room exercises we are pleased to offer this feature as an excellent substitute.

Hundreds of editors throughout America are serving the interests of a mixed constituency by publishing this unsectarian weekly service, and we sincerely hope to do likewise.

HIT RESPONSIVE CHORD LAST WEEK.

Teachers and Students Helped by the Week's Lessons.

A Splendid Article This Week—Sunday School Recitation Made Enjoyable by Reading These Excellent Sermonettes. A Splendid General Knowledge of the Bible Will Necessarily Follow.

Of interest to all our readers are the Brooklyn Tabernacle Articles on the International Sunday School Lessons. These articles are written for everybody—the teacher, the pupil, the stay-at-home and the skeptic. All will find this week's lesson "worth while."

Some people can prosper and maintain a respectable standing among their fellows without being familiar with Shakespeare, Virgil or Emerson, but none can afford to lack a general knowledge of the Bible. No matter how many cares rest upon an individual he is not excused if found ignorant of the general teachings of the Scriptures, acknowledged to be the World's Most Wonderful Book.

By a perusal or, better still, by a systematic study of a series of these articles on the Sunday Lesson, a splendid general knowledge of the Bible will necessarily follow. Therefore we again with pleasure call our readers' attention to the one-column Brooklyn Tabernacle Bible Study, on the International Sunday School Lesson, appearing regularly in this paper.

LAKE COUNTY VOTES TO BANISH SALOONS

Barring the lake which is usually wet, Lake county is now dry as a bone. At the election last week there was also a wet and dry election at which the whole county voted. The result was a majority of 25 votes for the drys. The dry spell commences 10 days after the official canvass of the vote which will make it the 21st. Lakeport and most of the territory was already dry. Regarding the election the Clear Lake Press of Lakeport says:

On the saloon question, the result generally in the county is a confirmation of the arguments of the anti-saloon advocates. Upper Lake presents the strongest proof of this. Where that town voted dry in November, 1910, by 21 majority, and has experienced two years of practically satisfactory enforcement of the law they confirmed their previous judgment by returning a majority of 118 Middletown also, which was dry for two years but voted wet at a special election Oct. 31, 1911, returned to the dry column by a safe majority. Lakeport reversed her decision of the small majority of 2 dry in April of this year to 13 wet at this time, a change of but fifteen votes. Both sides are known to have lost, probably about equally, by removal since the spring election, and the anti-saloon people maintain that their defection was due to aged or infirm voters kept at home by the inclement weather and that if another occasion presented itself they could easily exceed even their April vote. Lower Lake put herself on record as strongly farvoring their solution of the saloon question, viz., the permitting of but one saloon in the town and strict regulation of it. That that method of regualtion has given quite general approval is evidenced by the vote 122 to 51, a majority of 71 for the municipal saloon. Other precinct changes are unimportant, except that Scotts Valley, which had a wet majority of seven in Nov., 1910, and which was generally reported strongly leaning that way now, gave a majority of one vote to the anti-saloon forces.

The county ordinance thus adopted by the initiative vote of the people will go into effect ten days after the election returns have been officially canvassed by the Supervisors, which will be done next Monday, making the date of closing Nov. 21st. After that date no saloons will be allowed in the county outside of Lakeport, which has by itself banished them under the Wylie law, Liquor, including wine, can be manufactured, stored shipped outside, and delivered to persons at their permanent residence, or to druggists or be dispensed on physician's prescriptions, but cannot be sold otherwise. There is no restriction on people giving it to their friends at their homes, providing same is not a place of public resort. Reading of the law seems to indicate that another election under the initiative cannot be brought within six months.

The Third Supervisorial district, comprising the two Upper Lake precincts, Bachelor and Gravelly valleys and Bartlett Springs, also voted decisively against the licensing of saloons in that district, on the separate proposition under the Wylie law, giving a majority of 126 dry.

BUYS ANDERSON VALLEY APPLES

B. M. Bucknell purchased about 50 ton of dried apples while in Anderson valley last week for a San Francisco firm. The price was 4 1-2 cents. The Anderson valley crop is a little shorter this year than last but the price is much better.

Editor Fred Loring and Morgan Whitcomb were down from Willits Monday. Fred reports that it is raining in Willits.

UKIAH

By Grover C. McGimsey.

Nestled close beneath the wooded hills,
Even as a flower beneath the sky—
Here lies the land of rature's timely dream;
The peaceful flower strewn valley of Ukiah.
Nature's own we call her—and we're proud,
For winter, spring, in summer and in fall
We watch the changing colors of her dress;
And love her for the peace she brings to all.
And even as we dream of other lands,
Of valleys that have lured the "Poets" true—
We prize her yet above their time-told worth;
For she is ours, and holds our musing too.
Decked with a million sunbeams in their dawn,
Blest with a million drops of scented dew;
Held to her heart she blends them into one,
And moulds a heaven for her treasured few.
Robed in a mantle when the twilight falls,
Hushed by a stillness that precedes the night,
Alone she stands a haven neath the stars
A land for all a valley of delight.
This is Ukiah the home-land of my dreams,
The vale wherein my man-hood's hopes are laid
And ever in my heart I'll hold it dear
True till death with all my tributes paid.
And you, Oh gifted lover of your home,
Who's birth denotes and holds you to your dream;
What treasure there can e're replace this gift
Or to you in its gild replace its name.
Nothing I ween, and whither you may go,
I know in truth you will come back to stay;
To offer up your prayers as even I
Expect to do when fate decrees my way.
'Tis ours then friend, the lovers treasured vale,
Wherein the hopes of life are laid and wroug t;
A country that belongs to all who love,
Who seeks for truth of those few things unbought.
So let us hold it close within our grasp,
And mold it with a dream of something grand
For nature gives nor offers nothing fairer,
Than this our valley on the sun-kissed strand.

QUICK WORK FOR PRESS AD

Mrs. Krainеck who is here on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Lempke, has demonstrated the value of Press want ads. She lost a brooch this week and advertised for it through the Press. The brooch was found Wednesday morning by Gus Keller and Charles Nutter and was brought to this office and promptly returned to Mrs. Krainеck. Sometimes Press ads return lost articles even before the paper is issued.

GERMAN THANKS FRIENDS

W. W. German wants to thank the friends who stood by him in the recent election and considering the fact that he was an independent candidate and the weather conditions is pleased with the vote he received. He made a good clean fight and the votes he secured showed that he had seen the people. Mr. German's only interest in the fight was from the fact that he believed that more permanent roads should be built and that the farmers were enitled to this for their taxes. Mr. German has proved himself a clean industrous campaigner and undoubtedly at a future time would made a much better race for the office.

NO KILLING FROSTS YET

Peter Huff brought in a bouquet this week showing what can be raised in this valley. He had pumpkin, potatoe and tomato vines grown on his ranch in this valley each of which bore some of the fruit showing that no frost has yet injured the delicate growths in this section. He says that it has frequently happened that he has had new potatoes at Christmas time.

PLEASANT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Little Clarence Neil Ganter entertained a few of his infant friends and their chaperons Tuesday afternoon at the Ganter home on west Smith street. He was assisted by his grandmothers, aunts and other relatives and everyone reported a very enjoyable time. The event was little Clarence Neil's second birthday and the two candles on the birthday cake attracted the admiration and envy of his youthful friends.

THE people are responding liberally to the Industrial edition of the Republican Press and realize that it will be one of the greatest boosting propositions that Mendocino county ever had. It is not to be confused with a cheap special edition printed in loose sections on a poor grade of paper as it will be in pamphlet form printd on the best book paper and handsomely illustrated. The cover page will be in colors special drawings having been made for the purpose. The articles descriptive of Mendocino county will be written by those most competent to describe our beautiful county. Every industry will be well represented. None of the old stereotyped stuff will be used in the magazine and even the pictures will be new. Special pictures showing what can be produced in Mendocino county are being used and every picture will tell the story of what can be done with a little work. By the way if you have any big pumpkins, loaded apple trees monster potatoes or anything else that will be of attraction to outsiders take photos of them and send them in with a short description. Be sure and get a good photo showing the article as prominently as possible with a ruler beside it so that there can be no doubt as to the size. Remember that while we are doing everything we can to make this issue thoroughly representative it is up to you to help.

JUDGES and the law are a peculiar combination. The construction of the law seems to be such that if a man has enough money to interest a lawyer that he can escape the penalty provided. The duty of a judge appears to interpret the law in such a way that if some one has made an error in a commitment or other necessary legal form that the question of innocense or guilt is overlooked entirely and the words of the legal paper are alone observed and the case is decided in this technicality.

We do not mean to infer that the judges are corrupt or that the attorneys are to blame for accepting a fee, but we do think that something is radically wrong with our legal procedure. We see cases where a man charged with murder or some serious crime is liberated because the jury returned a verdict on a legal holliday or because the prosecuting attorney forgot to allege that the man killed was a human being, or because it is not alleged that crime was committed in a certain state. The fact of whether or not the man is guilty is not taken into consideration. The only thing considered is the technical error. In other words instead of the law being interpreted so as to protect society from the criminal the construction is to protect the criminal from paying the penalty of his misdeeds. The latest decision along this line is that every inmate in the Mendocino state hospital who has been committed for booze and drug habits is illegally restrained and can leave whenever he desires. In handing down this decision, according to the newspaper reports, the judge did not consider whether or not the inmate was a drunkard and dangerous to society, or whether incarceration until he was weaned of his unnatural craving would not only benefit the man and his family and all humanity but decided the case on the form of the affidavit on which the drunkard was committed which he held to be defective.

The pertinent point about these decisions is, do they subserve the interests of society? Has the liberated murderer been cured of his disease or the public safeguarded? Has the booze fiend been cured and again fit to associate with his fellow men? Or have the people paid a salary to one man to decide that some other man has made an error in doing what he was paid to do right? In other words are the people getting a square deal. It would seem to us, with all due respect to the judges, that a level headed farmer who had never seen a law book, could arrive at a decision in any of these cases which would much more nearly serve the purpose of law and justice from the standpoint of society.

P. S.—A press dispatch says: The indictments against Armour & Co., and Fred Oppenheim, a commission merchant, have been quashed by a federal judge because the word "transport" in the indictment should have read "trans ship."

The railway traffic men say, "they're headed west: But, to what part of the west? That is the question. People are coming into California by the hundreds of thousands every year. And of these multitudes the greater number stop either south of Tehatchapi or in the great central valleys. This is true despite the fact that these localities have little to offer except high priced land with attendant unceasing and eternal water rents why? The answer is simple. These communities are Advertised. In a dozen ways they are advertised throughout the east and Fort Bragg is unknown—unheard of. Los Angeles was the first in field and today she reaps the benefit.

She has a reputation and she's getting immigration.

That reputation is founded on boosting and advertising begun ten years ago and presistently continued.

Before Fort Bragg and the Mendocino Coast can know the same Phenomenal growth that Southern Califrornia witnessed she must get her name before the people. She must boost—Loud! So loud that people in Maine and people in Carolina shall hear.

Fort Bragg must have a Chamber of Commerce that is a live wire. Her real estate must spread her fame afar.

A part of this great immigration stream from the east must be turned in this direction. Then the greatest victory is won for where come the many, thence the many follow, and no section of Caifornia will equal the Fort Bragg region when once its latent resources are developed.--Fort Bragg Chronicle.

The above clipping sets forth the needs of Mendocino county in advertising in a good plain manner. The Press has been trying to enthuse the advertising spirit into Mendocino county residents for years and to this end we are preparing our industrial edition. We have planned to make the edition one that will cover all of the county and our representatives will visit the different cities in the next few weeks. The people of Ukiah have given the edition their hearty endorsement both morally and financially.

THE people of Ukiah have been entitled to a free mail delivery for some time, or in fact ever since the paving of the street and our post office being placed in the second class. The extension of sidewalks and street crossings have extended the scope which could be covered by the carrier. The old adage that everything comes to him who waits is true, but it will come a darned sight faster to the fellow who hustles. If you want your mail delivered it is up to you.

AS suggested in the Press last week the way to save the Republican party from oblivion is to reorganize it on modern lines. The defeat at the polls at the recent election was due to many things but primarily because the national leaders of the party tried to force the people to vote for something they did not want. The success of the democratic party is not due to the conversion of voters to democratic principles but to a spirit of revenge. With progressive leaders four years hence and a platform that the people will endorse success is sure. In Mendocino county practically every Republican who voted for Wilson announces that he has not changed his political faith and four years from now will be ready to vote for a Republican president. This condition exists all over the United States and these voters must be considered in nominating a president.

AS usual Brother Sanford of the Dispatch was trying to misrepresent things last week and accused the Press of not supporting the Republican supervisors. The Press made the announcement several weeks ago that it would support the Republican nominees as they appeared in this state and it did. No further proof of this is needed than our editorial columns. Harris, Ross and Ray received the straight support of this paper and everything that we could do to assist in their election was done. Naturally Brother Sanford feels a little sore over the result of the election as he made such a fight for Clark that neither he nor Bell could line themselves up with the Wilson supporters even when they commenced throwing handsprings to get on the wagon. The result of all this is that the federal patronage will not be passed out for this county through Mr. Sanford although he has waited twenty years for the chance to distribute these plums. He is also sore because his candidate for congress was defeated. A reference to the columns of the Dispatch will also show that he did not support Assembyman elect T. J. Weldon although Mr. Weldon's record as a democrat is very consistent and if anyone deserved anything at the hands of the democratic party it was Mr. Weldon. This is accounted for partly because Mr. Weldon was one of the original Wilson men in the county and that he has also refused to be held up on any proposition by Mr, Sanford, the would be democratic boss. Considering all of these things we forgive Mr. Sanford for his personal abuse of us and think that the community should bear with him, as while the democratic party won Mr. Sanford cannot enjoy the victory with the others. His celebration is more in the nature of a private funeral of cherished hopes.

AUDITORIUM WANTED

The fight is now on for an up-to-date, commodious city auditorium, one that will meet the needs of every occasion, one that will answer the demands not only of to-day but of the future.

Realizing that such a structure must be provided in order that we may securely establish our claim as a city that is striving to be in the forefront in every movement that has to do with civic and social development, the Executive Committee of the Ukiah Musical Association announces that the association will not take up the lyceum work for the season 1912-13, but hereby extend to each member of the association as well as to all other citizens who realize with a broader vision the importance of accomplishing a greater work, an earnest appeal to unite with them in a determined effort to secure before the next season, an adequate auditorium that will reflect credit to our city and inspire increased pride in every movement of community interest.

The urgent demand for such a buildingis continually confronting us.

The Ukiah Hop Festival is destined to become a permanent factor in the development and maintenance of a higher order of community pride and will prove a most wholesome stimulant to increased endeavor and a greater accomplishment along all industrial lines.

We must have a spacious pavilion inorder to achieve the highest purposes of this organization.

The Ukiah musical association is a permanent instituton that has for its object the development of higher ideals, and the awakening of the finer sentiments of community life.

If, in bringing to Ukiah a higher order of entertainment such as will arouse the public conscience to a deeper appreciation of that which is elevating and renfining, we are able to see that our efforts are receiving generous acceptance because of this fact, we will feel that our claims for a suitable structure for this work are deserving of more than passing consideration

In our efforts in the past we have been sadly hindered because there was no place in which to present the lyceum numbers that was in any degree harmonious with public feeling and with the conditions that were presented.

In 1914, Ukiah must bid welcome to a multitude of people who will gather here to attend the county fair.

What claim have we to such an honor unless we provide in the meantime a building that will sufficiently display the wonderful products of soil and handiwork and at the same time add comfort and give a radiant warmth to our expression of welcome to the visitor.

In a few years Ukiah will be on the connecting link of two transcontinental railway systems, and this will bring to our very door the opportunity for many a pleasurable and profitable hour, if we have an efficiently equipped play house in which to greet the traveling artist.

How often have we heard that the lack of a commodious convention hall has been the cause of Fraternal orgnizations declining to hold their conventions here.

Our church festivals and fairs under the impetus of an expanded opportunity, would become a much more helpful factor in the extension of this needed department of our city life.

Then there are our teachers' institutes, every department of the work of which could be carried on in one bulding such as we advocate. In fact every occasion that calls for the gathering together of our people would result in the greater success of its issues.

In summer and in winter we would have the fullest measure of comfort insured us and a common investment at all times would cement a bond of common interest which would make lighter the trivial burden of the investment because we each have a part in the accomplishment of a good deed.

The next question arises, will one building accomnodate itself to all these needs? We are informed by a competent architect and builder that without any considerable additional expense one building can be so equipped that it will meet the requirements of any and all occassions.

Are the citizens of Ukiah in sympathy with the movement to the extent that htey will vote bonds to raise $15,000, or an approximate amount for this auditorium, the bonds to be payable in a long term of years so that the burden will be very light each year on the taxpayers, an amount that will not exceed one dollar each year for the average home owner?

Any one who doubts this can make the calculation for himself. Ukiah's assessed valuation is something more than $1,000,000. A bond issue of $15,000, payable in forty years and drawing 5 per cent interest would require $30,000 to pay the entire amount both principal and interest. and the average amount of the annual payments would be $750 or a tax of about 7½ cents for each$ 100 assessed. That would be easy would it not?

A number of the most prominent tax payers and business men have expressed a most cordial acceptance of the plan proposed.

Will the people generally give it their endorsement?

We call upon the members of the Ukiah musical associaton and all progressive citizens to give this work their hearty support and co-operation and help carry to a successful issue the consummation of our earnest efforts in behalf of an adequate auditorium for Ukiah and community.

DO YOU WANT FLIES POISONING YOUR FOOD

Flies! Flies! Flies! Do our people want flies? Yes? No? Then why have them? Why should they sample our foods before us? Why the meat on the block in the market, our vegetables, fruits and groceries, our bread, pies and cakes in the stores? Why should stables, garbage, etc be a center of swarms of flies? They are the recognized breeders of disease; the enemy of the greatest boon of mankind—Health.

Couldn't we rid our city of the pest as Salt Lake and others have done? Wouldn't it be glorious to know that our foods had not been touched by the filthy germ-carrying fly? Glass cases, fly traps, cleanliness are some of the agencies to combat the evil. Think of it; act on it; those who abominate flies.—Civic Committee, Saturday Afternoon Club.

HOP FIENDS WILL BE TURNED LOOSE

By decree of the District Court of Appeal at Sacramento, in the case of Henley against the Superior Court of that county, every victim of the drug and liquor habit, now under commitment to the state hospital at Ukiah, is entitled to release.

The judgment is as yet unprinted in the California reports, although rendered last February, and its first announcement was made before Judge J. J. Van Nostrand in the superior court of San Francisco Monday by Attonrney Matt I. Sullivan, in support of his application for the release of Walter Hamilton, a shipwright, from the institution.

With no alternative before him, Judge Van Nostrand signed the order for Hamilton's release, and at the same time admitted from the bench that every inmate of the Ukiah institution, for treatment of the drug or habitual intemperance habits, is entitled to his or her release, if applied for, under the same ruling of the higher court.

Mrs. Annie Hamilton, 1000 De Hara street, upon whose affidavit the husband was committed, sat in court when the order was signed and wept.

In June last she had Hamilton arrested, charged with being an habitual drunkard. She set forth in her affidavit that he had threatened to kill her and their whole family and had choked their minor son when in his cups.

As in the case of every person committed to Ukiah, the affidavit, a form furnished by the state, alleged that he has used alcoholic liquors until "he has lost the power of self-control."

In the case of drug fiends the same language is used in the affidavit.

The Appellate Court holds that the words, "he has lost the power of self-control," is a conclusion of law, and that, instead, a statement of fact must be contained in the affidavit to make the commitment binding upon the person and upon the state.

As no other form of affidavit has ever been used in the state, the effect of the judgment is to release all who wish to leave Ukiah, if their commitment is for the excessive use of either drugs or liquor.

Judge Van Nostrand declared that the law upon which commitments are made is not invalid, but the form of affidavit is, and must hereafter be changed to conform to the ruling of the higher court.

CHRISTINE POET CHRONICLES NEWS

(Press' Special Service)

CHRISTINE, November 13—This valley has experienced a heavy rain but at present it looks as if we might have a few days clear weather.

The old Weherspon sawmill has been renovated and commenced sawing lumber Tuesday on Mr. Whitehead's land.

Miss Alda Nunn and Miss Edith Gschwend who were thrown from their buggy recently on their way to high school at Con Creek sustained numerous bruises but are again able to attend school. Instead of driving from Christine they are now boarding near the school house however.

Mrs. Thornberry and son who have been visiting her brothers, Frank and George Cook, for several months left this week for Oakland.

George Cook has just finished his contract of getting out 1200 cords of tan bark for Mr. Yordi. This is the largest bark contract handed in this section for years and was the means of distributing several thousand dollars through the community. Mr. Cook is a rustler and when he starts on a contract there is something doing all the time.

The bark camp at Boonville in charge of Horace Berger has been obliged to shut down on account of the rain and will be closed for the winter. Most of the bark was not packed out of the woods and part of it not even swamped. The loss will be quite heavy on the bark left in the woods. Only about 500 cords was gotten out.

Mrs. M. L. Cook who has been here keeping house for her sons, George and Frank, left for her home last week.

Newt Howe of Point Arena and P. I. Lancaster of Willits were in town this week and were both very much pleased with the slaughter of the Moose but announce that they are prepared to vote the Republican ticket four years from now however. Supervisor Dave Brandon is also one of the Taft Republicans who wears a smile.

TRAGIC FOR WHISTLER.

A White Plume Joke That Enraged the Eccentric Master.

It has been said of Whistler, truly enough, that he was proud of the white plume in his black hair. But with his pride went, naturally, a certain sensitiveness. He wanted his little tuft of white treated with respect—as a flag. It was sacred, as the white flag was to the Comte de Chambord. Most people respected Whistler's wish, but not all.

I went one day to a luncheon given by a lady whom her friends set up as a rival to Mrs. Langtry. It was a large party. When the ladies went upstairs most of the men were bidden by their hostess to follow as soon as their first cigarette had been smoked. Whistler was not told. On the contrary, a man was asked to hold him in talk for ten minutes.

Once in the drawing room the hostess produced a number of white feathers, one of which she fastened into each man's hair in front where Whistler wore his. Then she marshaled her men in line, facing the door, and sent word to Whistler in the dining room that he was staying a long time and she would like him to come up.

He obeyed, and when he opened the door of the drawing room and found himself confronted with a line of black haired men, each decorated with a white plume in imitation of his own, his face turned red and then pale. He walked slowly past the line to the end, where stood his hostess enjoying what she thought an innocent pleasantry.

But Whistler's expression had in it much more of tragedy than of comedy. "Ah, yes," he said, "very pretty, very pretty indeed. To not one of you will I ever speak again." With that he turned his back on his hostess and her guests and marched out of the room and downstairs and out of the house. Yet his anger did not last.—G. W. Smalley's "Anglo-American Memories."

A COINER OF WORDS.

Mirabeau's Busy Brain Enlarged the World's Vocabulary.

The authorities seem to assign the origin of the word aristocrat to the French Revolution, which coined its opposite, democrat. Oddly enough, the word seems to have been first applied to our harmless military order, the Cincinnati.

When the Cincinnati was organized in 1783 a storm of objection was raised. One of the pamphlets that denounced the military order, of which Washington was the head, fell into the hands of Mirabeau, who immediately made it the subject of a slashing tract in which he called the society unrepublican, un-American and much else that was not complimentary.

To cap the climax, he wrote, "Les Cincinnati sont donc des nobles, des aristocrates, de vrais patriciens!" (The Cincinnati, then, are nobles, aristocrats, veritable patricians!) The word was born. Mirabeau, perhaps the ablest Frenchman of the time, liked the new word so well that he repeated it several times.

His pamphlet was written in 1785, and since no Paris publisher was willing to take risks with an essay so strongly republican it was printed in London in 1788. The word was accepted in many languages and led to the formation of many similar words, like democrat, autocrat, theocrat, plutocrat, bureaucrat and others. In 1785, when Mirabeau wrote, there was no precedent for such words unless it were the French form of certain Greek names, like Socrate, Isocrate, Hippocrate.

Mirabeau's busy brain and facile tongue added several other useful words to the world's vocabulary. Capitalist, bonhomie, parvenu, Anglo-American, primary meeting, veto (as a noun) and universal suffrage are all words of phrases first used by him.—Youth's Companion.

The Letter of the Law.

A mother led her six children to the apple tree. It had borne but a single apple—no longer visible to the casual observer. "I told you not to pick that apple!" she said sternly.

"We didn't pick it!" the children answered in chorus. And the oldest girl added in an injured tone: "You can see yourself that it's still on the tree. I—I mean—the core is! We only climbed up an'—an' took a bite once in awhile—we didn't pick it!"—Exchange.

He Had Been Treated.

Old Lady (compassionately) — Poor fellow! I suppose your blindness is incurable. Have you ever been treated? Blind Man (sighing)—Yes, mum, but not often. 'Tain't many as likes to be seen goin' into a public house with a blind beggar.—London Tit-Bits

A Night With the Boys.

Singleton—What's the matter, old man? You look as if you'd been making a night of it with the boys. Newpop—You've struck it! The twins kept me up till 3 o'clock this morning.—Boston Transcript.

The Other Side.

"Do you think a little learning is a dangerous thing?"

"Possibly. But it isn't half so dangerous as the same amount of ignorance."—Detroit Free Press.

Obvious.

Bessie—Wonder if Maude knows that we are looking at her new gown? Jessie—Certainly. What do you suppose she is walking down this street for?—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Softening His Joy.

Client—So the jury gave me $1,000! That's great, eh? Lawyer—Yes, my boy. You don't know how badly I needed it.—Life.

LAUGHTER AND TEARS.

Why an Outburst of the One May Cause a Flow of the Other.

What is laughter and why do tears so often accompany it?

On each side of the throat is an artery called the carotid. At the level of the larynx this divides, one branch, which carries blood to the brain, being called the internal, the other, which distributes blood to the face, being called the external. These two branches are joined about the level of the eyes by the ophthalmic artery, which forms a canal between them. This communication is the cause of the close connection between the brain and the tear glands, between laughter and grief, both of which are generators of tears.

Physiologically, a burst of laughter is nothing but a strenuous effort, like lifting a heavy weight. In both cases the muscles of the throat and stomach contract.

When laughter is excessive the whole body is convulsed; every muscle is contracted. In the place of normal respiration come short intermittent respirations, insufficient to free the lungs from the semi-asphyxia produced by the contraction of the throat muscles. The face shows the congestion of the blood vessels of the head. Apoplexy may in rare cases result. These muscular contractions compress the external carotid, which can no longer supply the brain with blood. In consequence this rushes up the internal carotid, which becomes choked and dilated. It can stand the pressure only because the ophthalmic artery relieves it. Taking this route the blood congests the tear glands, which overflow.

Tears are exactly the same as the liquid part of the blood. So it is a fair deduction that the action of crying is equivalent to a certain loss of blood, which relieves the congestion of the brain. This is why women feel so much better after a good cry.

The facial contortions of weeping persons are caused by the automatic contraction of such muscles as are needed to compress the tear glands and so help to squeeze out the tears.—New York World.

BATTLE OF MARATHON.

The single day in the world's history which was fraught with the most tremendous consequences to mankind was the day on which the battle of Marathon was fought. The handful of tiny states that inhabited Greece had developed faculties which indicated that man had advanced another stage toward the highest ideals.

Foremost among those little nations was Athens, which state, too, contained the germs of human freedom. It was the forerunner of the democracies of the world. But the very existence of Athens and Greece was threatened by the huge barbaric empire of Persia. Darius had sent out his hordes of warriors to add the Grecian states to his vast dominions. Face to face his forces met the Athenians on the plains of Marathon.

Hitherto invincible in the field, the Persians looked upon the little army opposed to them with contempt. The Greeks themselves hesitated to hazard a battle with the conquerors of the world. Their generals debated the question, and the decision to fight the Persians was caused by the eloquence of the immortal Miltiades. He led his 10,000 Greeks against the Persian host and gained a decisive victory. The glorious day of Marathon beat back the advancing tide of eastern despotism and barbarism and saved the freedom and civilization of the western world.—Pearson's Weekly.

Seventeenth Century Grocers.

Department stores would have fared hard in the seventeenth century, unless their proprietors could have induced parliament to grant more privileges than were allowed to other shopkeepers. The articles that a grocer might sell were definitely prescribed. They were "raysons, currants, sugar, spice, sope, candle, molasses, gunpowder, shot, match, tar, pitch, rosin, tobacco, cotton yarn, starch, bluing, prunes, figs, linseed oil, lead, olives, figs, Spanish white alabaster, alum, almonds, brimstone, lampblack and candle rushes.

No Money, No Marriage.

"A fortune teller told me that you are going to marry me," said the young man with the prominent socks.

"Did she also tell you that you are going to inherit a very large fortune?" inquired the girl with the matinee hair.

"She didn't say anything about a fortune."

"Then she is not much of a fortune teller, and you had better not place any reliance in anything she says."—Washington Herald.

Maternalism.

WORK PROGRESSING ON CLEARLAKE ROAD

At a meeting of the directors of the Clear Lake Rail Road compny last week it was announced that the 8 miles of grade on the Hopland end of the contract would be completed this week and that it was a very good piece of work. Engineer Rankin announced that he has about completed the new survey cutting down the grade and straightening out the curves and it is thought that the company can now get the eastern company that has been in negotiation on the matter to take it up and complete the road. The attachment of Euville Howard on the money in the treasury for commissions has been released and the plaintiff has amended his complaint. It is said that the sense of the directors at the meeting was against paying this bill.

BUYS THE PARSONS RANCH

H. C. McKoon has purchased the Tom Parson's place at Largo the trade having been made last week. This is one of the finest ranches in the valley and has been particularly productive in its hop crop. Mr. McKoon is an energetic rancher and plans a number of improvements in the place. Mr. Parsons will make his home at Santa Rosa. Clem Parsons of Santa Rosa was up with him last week.

LITTLE CHICKENS SOLD BY PRESS ADS

Bert T. Thmoas is one of the latest converts to Press want ads. Bert has been advertising his day old chicks for sale and reports that the little ad brought him letters from all over the county and a number from other conties. He says that he is worn out answering letters and has so nearly sold out the capacity of his incubators that he was afraid to advertise any more for fear of running short on chicks. Everyone that tries a Press want ad has nearly the same experience and needless to say are pleased with the result. Their satisfaction is proved by the fact that most of our want ad business comes from former customers.

W. M. Ornbaun passed through town last week on his way home to Covelo after a visit in San Francisco. Mr. Ornbaun is manager of the Hop & Barley ranch and reports that the years crop were bountiful. He is also very much pleased with the election of Wilson.

THE WEEKS NEWS IN HOPLAND SECTION

(Press Special Service)

HOPLAND, November 14—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lowe are having their residence renovated and extended. They are expecting his mother from the east to arrive shortly to spend the winter with them.

W. G. Grant is quite sick with pneumonia. His daughter, Mrs. McNulty of San Francisco is here taking care of him.

Our supervisor elect, J. W. Harris, was in Ukiah this week on a business visit. Hopland is very proud of the showing Mr. Harris made at the election.

O. R. Meyers is sick again this week which will delay their moving to their new residence at Ukiah.

Mrs. W.Harvey and Mrs. E. H. Harvey spent Wednesday in Ukiah on a business visit.

S. E. Brookes is confined to his home with a bad cold this week.

S. Beasly of Boonville brought over a load of luscious apples this week for which he found a ready market.

M A. Swanfelt, who has been manager of the Foster poultry farm for several years has resigned on account of ill health.

Mrs. R. N. Foster is spending a few days in San Francisco on a visit.

H. Harvey and Kenneth Staggs were in Ukiah this week.

The entertainment at Leek's hall Saturday night was well attended considering the storm. A very enjoyable time is reported.

A contest open to all for the best cake made with cottolene is to be held in Leek's hall Friday night. All the ladies here are entering with the expectation of being the winner. A good time is anticipated.

Mrs. L. Harris and son, Gregory, went to San Francisco this week for a visit.

Miss Margaret Connolly who has been teaching at Jackson and Miss Amy Mahurin the teacher at Whitcomb, have closed their schools and returned to this city to spend their vacation.

NEWS OF THE WEEK GLEANED AT CALPELLA

(Press' Special Service)

CALPELLA, Nov. 12--Not much grain has been sowed this fall. It has been raining now for four weeks.

Even the heavens weep over the down fall of the good old repubican party. Scratch off progressive and retain the renowned old republican party. Progressive sounds like something above the old name but the republican party and money on a gold bases is good enough for anybody.

There has been some property changed hands last week. Henry Ross has exchanged his ranch near Laughlin for property near Turlock. Mr. Martel has also exchanged for property near Turlock.

Mrs. McHemar has sold her residence and blacksmith shop to a party fom Ukiah. The farmers will bid a good smith a good welcome. While we get a blacksmith it will inconvenience James McFarland as there is no houses to rent fit to live in.

If some of the people who have money to let would build a few good dwelling houses it would improve Calpella and she could wear a progressive smile.

E. Spitzer is having a foundation built in his store to place the post office boxes on. Mr. Spitzer is so extremely neat that we know it will look nice and we know that he can conduct the postoffice to the satisfaction of the most cranky ones.

THESE PRECINCTS HELD NO ELECTION

Strange as it may seem two precincts in this county held no election November 5th. The precincts are Bear Harbor and Eden valley. There is only a small registration in each precinct and it is reported that the board is considering discontinuing these precincts and consolidating them with some of the others.

FIRE DANGER AT SEA.

The danger from fire on a transatlantic liner is more serious than is generally believed. It is much greater than the danger from collision and is becoming more and more dangerous with the increased outlay upon luxury and display. The main structure of the ship and most of its essential parts are of metal, but many of the fittings, nearly every feature of ornament and every trapping of luxury, are highly inflammable.

No one who has not been aboard the Spanish wrecks at Santiago can conceive how fire can sweep the inside of even a metal ship. Admiral Cervera described to me the experience on board the Teresa in these words: "The second shot that came on board set us on fire. The fire main was damaged. Soon we were unable to cope with the fire. It swept through her from bow to stern. There was not a space as big as the palm of your hand where life could have been sustained. An insect could not have lived on board. We had to get overboard or be burned."

It is true the Spaniards had not cut out their woodwork and thrown overboard all unnecessary inflammables, as we had in the American fleet, but the inflammability of one of their warships was much less than that of a luxurious ocean liner.—Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson in Engineering Magazine.

PINEAPPLE PLANTS.

Pineapples do not grow on trees. Imagine a plant four feet in extreme height from the ground to the tip of leaves, a single stalk at the surface, but dividing at once into swordlike blades or leaves, fifteen in number, from the center of which appears a stiff, upright stem, at the top of which is the fruit. This stem is short, and the crown of the fruit when fully grown is a foot or more below the points of the leaves.

At the end of a year-and a half from planting each plant produces a single fruit, even as a cabbage plant produces a single head. But the pineapple does not die after fruiting once. Down on the stem below the fruit and among the long, narrow leaves a sucker appears. If allowed to remain this will soon become the head of the plant, and within another year it will yield another fruit. This process may go on for a term of years. In the meantime, however, other suckers will make their appearance.

These are broken off, and when stuck into the ground they put out roots and become other plants. Thus a single pineapple plant may produce a dozen or more others while it is yielding fruit from year to year.

TAX MONEY COMING IN RAPIDLY NOW

Tax Collector Van Dyke and his deputies report that they are now getting into the stride of collecting the money. Although collection was commenced in October nothing much was done until the last two weeks and the collections now amount to about $22,000. From now on till he last Monday in this month they will be busy. The letter mail is now averaging about 200 letters a day for the office. The second installment will become due November 25th.

VERDICT OF CORONER'S JURY

A coroners inquest was held at Hopland last Friday over the remains of Charles W. Staggs, Judge Hnutley acting as corner. S. E. Brookes, Jas. Clendenin, O. R. Meyers, Tom Vanbeber, Van B. C. Harpe, M. W. Dooley were the coroners jury. Their verdict was "that the deceased, Charles W. Staggs, came to his death from a gunshot wound inflicted by W. J. Vassar, jr., at the residence of W. J. Vassar, jr., on the evening of Nov. 7, 1912, in the town of east Hopland. On the evidence submitted we find that it was not in self defence."
